4. ENTERTAINMENT

▪ MUSIC FESTIVALS:

- CASTELL DE PERALADA (JULY & AUGUST)

The medieval complex of the Castle of Peralada is the scene of the Castell de Peralada Festival during the months of July and August. The Auditorium, located between the gardens of Parque Castillo, is the ideal space for summer night concerts. The Church and the Cloister, on the other hand, host recitals, chamber concerts and small-format operas.

- HAVANERAS (FIRST SATURDAY OF JULY)

La Cantada de Habaneras in Calella de Palafrugell is probably one of the best-known events in Palafrugell. This act, which has its origins in 1966 with a meeting of singers in the Can Batlle tavern, was already very successful from the beginning and that forced the organizers to repeat the act on Calau beach (Calella).

Starting in 1969, the Association of Friends of Calella, organizer of the Cantada at that time, decided to move it to the Plaza del Port Bo, where it is currently held.

- JARDINS DE CAP ROIG (JULY & AUGUST)

The Cap Roig Festival is a music and dance festival held in the Cap Roig Gardens, in Calella de Palafrugell. Since 2001 it has been held annually, and all kinds of national and international artists participate.

The festival is held on an open-air stage with a capacity for 2,118 spectators.

- LA SANTA MARKET (SANTA CRISTINA D'ARO)

An oasis of creation, leisure & gastronomy in the heart of the Costa Brava. Santa is chic, she is a foodie, she is family-oriented, glamorous to the brim, night owl and funky. She is fun, crazy, cheerful, trendy... It is the quintessential summer meeting point in the Costa Brava, a magical place where things happen every day.

- WHITE SUMMER (FROM 20TH JULY TO 20TH AUGUST).

In white summer, the best version of design awaits you with its summer market, more than 20 open-air gastronomy proposals, the best of consolidated and emerging musical talent with a program of concerts, guaranteed fun with family experiences, workshops and games, and a selection of performing arts.
