

Mas Mateu, Costa Brava

Mas Mateu

Nestled within an expansive 18th-century estate and boasting breathtaking views of the Pyrenees, Mas Mateu offers a complete escape in the heart of Catalonia. Located just a few kilometres inland from the beautiful Costa Brava, the refurbished estate has retained its historical elegance. The sprawling grounds offer a myriad of on-site activities ranging from cycling to horse riding, with the estate home to one of Southern Europe's leading equestrian facilities. Inside, guests can choose from seven en-suite bedrooms, a further two doubles, a quadruple and a convertible studio, sleeping up to 24 guests. Additional accommodation is also available on the estate.

Location Details

Mas Mateu is nestled amidst the beautiful nature reserve of Les Gavarres with the Mediterranean Sea less than 10 kilometres away. Within a short drive, you will find several of Costa Brava's finest beaches, including Calella de Palafrugell (14km), Aigua Blava (16km) and L'Escala (33km). The history and culture of the area draws attention every year, and there are a number of well-preserved medieval villages to explore such as Peratallada (4.5km) and Pals (8.5km).

Mas Mateu sits within the province of Emporda which borders France to the north and the Mediterranean to the East. The local capital Girona (38km) is within easy reach, known for its medieval architecture, walled Old Quarter and the Roman remains of the Força Vella fortress. Slightly further afield lies Barcelona (130km), the capital of the region, famed for its beautiful art and world-class cuisine.
